BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES.

VISALIA, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] L. D. Whitt, a neighbor of the Evans family, saw a team drive into the Evans barn near town at 8:30 tonight. He believed the occupants were Evans and Sontag, the escaped robbers. He immediately sent a boy to town to inform the officers, and 100 men were soon surrounding the place. Sheriff Kay stationed men at all roads and in the field. There was no near approach made to the barn, but a team was sent to town to bring out Frank Byrd, brother-in-law of Evans, and have him go into the house, but he refused, saying Evans and Sontag would kill him as soon as any one.

When the Associated Press reporter left the scene at 10 o'clock the question of getting the Evans family out of the house was being discussed. When the family are out of the way the barn was to be fired, and the house also, if necessary.

Sheriff Kay received word today that Evans had bought a team from a party on Sand Creek, sixteen or eighteen miles from the city. It was not believed the man was daring enough to come on the plain and return home. The man who saw the team go into the barn is reliable. Men have been sent to town for more guns and ammunition. The officers were not positive that the men were in the barn, but they stated that they were not at all surprised at the news that the bandits had returned. They intimated that they had expected a move on the part of the robbers.

About 11 o'clock Sheriff Kay awakened Mrs. Evans and asked if her husband was there. She replied that he was not, and she got up from her bed and accompanied Kay to the barn, a lighted candle in her hand. At the barn she hesitated a moment and then entered the barn. There was no sign of wagon or men.

CHASING THE ROBBERS.

Evans and Sontag seen—shot fired—The Outlaws escape.

VISALIA, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The man who returned closed-mouthed last night were more communicative today. The shooting at the robbers reported yesterday was confirmed by the two men who did it. Their story is that they followed the trail of the mule and cart to Nigger Creek, twenty-five miles east of the city. The trail finally turned back toward town. Soon they saw a mule hitched to a tree 100 yards from the road in a deep cañon. Here they waited until they heard the voice of a man calling another. Finally the man approaching the cart struck a match to light a cigar or pipe. Two shots were fired at this man with a Winchester rifle. Then the man in the cañon made for the bush.

This shooting took place at 9 o'clock Saturday night. As the two men were alone they waited for help, which did not arrive until the next morning. The shooters claim to have found footprints of the robbers next morning on the trail. This statement is not verified by the party which arrived.

The majority of those returning acknowledge that the trail of the robbers was lost from the fact that the pursued had got among rocks where no foot prints were left. There is a high mountain north of Nigger Creek and on top of it the robbers could see the two or three roads leading to the mountains and along which their pursuers would have to travel. During the day time the robbers could see over the plains for six or eight miles, and the desert raised the odds by twelve miles to the south. The robbers could see the mountains and along which their pursuers would have to travel.

It is now thought the robbers secured

no more than $2000 by the train robbery, leaving the men no more than $200 each to escape with, as they paid

Daring Outrage by Mexicans in Arizona.

Ex-Chief of Customs Guards Robbed of Important Papers.

The Prosecution of Elwood Bruner Again Postponed.

Welcome Rain in the Drought Regions of Arizona. The Naval Reserve Going to Santa Cruz — Ocean Rate War.

By Telegraph to The Times.
TUCSON (Ariz.) Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The Star's special advices from Bisbee say: "At station on the Bisbee railroad, a few miles below this place and several miles north of the Sonora line, four Mexican custom-house guards surrounded and captured another Mexican who had been but a few months previous chief of the Mexican guards. He was on his way to the City of Mexico and had with him a trunk which the invaders took possession of and demanded the key of the owner. This he refused to give although threats against his life were made. They then procured an axe and broke the trunk open. They took from it a bundle of documents and hastily departed for their own country."

The victim refuses to say anything regarding the purport of the papers seized, but from all he learned that they contained damaging testimony against custom officials stationed in Sonora, and that had he reached his destination with them it was believed wholesale arrests and removals would have speedily followed. A telegram was sent to the commander at Fort Huachuca; but he was unable to act in the matter. The master has been laid before the State Department at Washington."

THE STATE FAIR.

Expected to Be the Greatest Exhibition Ever Held in California.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The State Board of Agriculture held a meeting tonight to make final arrangements for the State Fair. The board was overwhelmed with applications for space at both the park and pavilion. The demand for stall room is already so great that the directors do not see their way clear to accommodate all applicants. The Palo Alto stable alone asks for twenty stalls. The directors are greatly impressed by the magnitude of the historical exhibition and will have to erect an immense building near the pavilion to contain all the articles promised for that department.

The City Trustees today granted the request of the Southern Pacific Company to lay a temporary track to the pavilion, on which to move old-time and modern locomotives and passenger coaches. Everything points to the greatest exhibition ever held in the state.

THE ILL-FATED PROSPECTORS.

More About Their Wanderings on the Burning Desert.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The Sun this afternoon prints a letter from Col. D. K. Allen of Yuma, Ariz., giving important news concerning the movements of E. T. Fish and the two Breedloves after June 18. A trusted Indian named Geronimo Elizalde says that Fish and young Breedlove were at his camp, near the Cocopah Mountains, June 23. Fish said he had found a rich silver mine, and later, seeing a rock from Geronimo's mine, went to him to inspect the ledge the next day, arriving just in time to catch the wagon and the older Breedlove. They refused a guide for water and were last seen on the afternoon of June 26 going toward Palm Springs. The Indian thinks they must have died in the hot desert winds which prevailed June 30, July 2 and 3, and were the most terrible ever known on the desert.

BRUNER'S CASE.

The Principal Witness Against Him Falls to Appear.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The case of Elwood Bruner, accused of having asked a bribe while a member of the Assembly, was called for trial this morning, but Attorney Foote, of the counsel for the prosecution, said it had been impossible to secure the presence of Adolph Ottlinger, the principal witness. He said defendant's counsel would agree to a continuance for one week, and if by that time Ottlinger were not present, he would agree to dismiss the charges.

Attorney Campbell for the defense, opposed any continuance. He said Bruner had been kept on the race nearly twelve months and was entitled to have some disposition made of his case.

Judge Wallace did not see fit to dismiss the case forthwith, but continued it to September 5.

Naval Reserve Going to Santa Cruz.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—The cruiser Boston will accompany the cruiser Charleston to Santa Cruz next Friday and not go to Honolulu until after her return. One company of the naval reserve will go on the Boston and the other on the Charleston. The Boston is expected down from Mare Island in a day or two. Admiral John Irwin of the navy-yard will transfer his flag to the Charleston next Thursday evening and command on the trip to Santa Cruz. Already arrangements are being made at Santa Cruz for the National Guard to receive the naval reserve when the latter arrives there.

The War of Ocean Rats.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—The Post says:

It was rumored on change today that there would soon be another startling development in the war now going on between companies owning ocean steamers, over control of the coast trade. From present prospects the battle will become even livelier than has been anticipated, for it is now said the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is in the lead in the rate-making, in rates on all ocean freight to 30 cents per ton. It is claimed that they can do this and not run behind much, because of the subsidy which the company has enjoyed from the Government for years.

Welcome Rain in Arizona.

TUCSON (Ariz.) Aug. 8.—After a long drought a general rain set in this evening here and in the surrounding section. Cattle were suffering fearfully and price had fallen to less than $5 per head. Tonight stockmen may well recover from his injury in season to start again this year.

MORE STORM HAVOC.

Wind, Hail and Rain Cause Losses Estimated at $1,000,000.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Last night's wind, rain and storm was very severe locally, but the greatest damage was done in other parts of the State. Full reports are not received, but the loss seems likely to reach nearly $1,000,000. In Lincoln, Yellow Medicine and Lyon counties alone the damage is estimated at more than $500,000.

A tornado passed over Marshal at 5 o'clock this morning, taking the same course as the one last Friday. Several buildings were destroyed, among others the Icelandic Lutheran Church and the residence of a man named Cummings, which had just been rebuilt after having been destroyed last Friday. The handsome cathedral windows in the Congregational and Methodist churches were destroyed. Two Poles are reported to have died at Marshall.

In St. Paul and Minneapolis a number of houses struck by lightning and more or less damaged by fire which followed, while the damage by wind and rain is great. Similar reports are received from other parts of the Northwest.

RIVAL OCEAN RACERS.

Spanner to be Built to Lower the Record Further.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] According to the Brooklyn Eagle, one of its reporters today asked Mr. Dallett, of the firm owning the Red Star line, about a rumor that the Cramps of Philadelphia have secured a contract to build ocean greyhounds to beat the record of the City of New York and City of Paris. Dallett said: "The contracts are signed. I saw Charley Cramp at Philadelphia a few days ago and he told me the drawings and specifications were made." The contract calls for two ships of 11,000 tons each, but it is understood three such vessels are to be contracted for.

Mr. Dallett said: "I do not see how Congress can admit Capt. Watkins of the City of Paris, to compete in our exhibition, except by a special bill. It would certainly be very wrong to admit foreign vessels to American registry and at the same time have them entered by Englishmen."

SEVERAL MEN STABBED.

WILKESBARRE (Pa.) Aug. 8.—While a number of young men, said to be railroaders, were walking down the Lehigh Valley Railroad yards at Coxton yesterday evening, they met a party of Italians with whom they began to quarrel. A few moments later the Italians drew knives and slashed right and left. Harry Bellette of Ashley, was stabbed in the head and after walking down the railroad track about fifty yards he dropped dead. Robert Williams was stabbed in the back and he also reported to be dead. John Jones escaped with several stabs in the body. His injuries are considered serious.

The Cobden Club Conquered.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The annual report of the Cobden Club is largely devoted to Lord Salisbury's celebrated Hastings speech. The report lauds the effects of Salisbury's language must have on European countries, having a high protective tariff and which were hanging out in the streets. The Cobden Club has visited the protection flag. The report says the speech will also have a baneful effect on free trade in the United States.

A Famous Poisoning Case.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Dr. Neill, under indictment for poisoning Matilda Clover was resumed today. Dr. Stevenson, the government analyst, who examined the stomachs of the Marsh, Shavel and Clover girls, also suspected to be victims of Neill, testified that he had found strichinine in the organs examined, and this was undoubtedly the cause of death.

No True Cholera in Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—Dr. Bronardel has compiled an elaborate and detailed report on the so-called cholera outbreak in Paris and some of its suburbs. The report proves that the outbreak was entirely due to drinking water from the River Seine. Not a single case could be traced to imported cholera or had the characteristics of true Asiatic cholera.

A British Torpedo Boat Sunken.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Two torpedo boats attached to the British blue squadron, while maneuvering near Portmouth today, came into collision. One was so badly damaged that she sank a few minutes after the accident. The other boat rescued everybody on the sinking vessel.

Ghastly Trophies for the Sultan.

TANGIER, Aug. 8.—The Sultan's troops brought here three captured rebellious tribesmen. The heads of the three rebels who surrendered in battle were cut off and the ghastly trophies of victory sent to the Sultan. The situation is becoming more and more threatening.

Dynamite in a Church.

ROME, Aug. 8.—A mortar charged with dynamite exploded on Sunday near St. Alfonso's Church during a religious fete. Eleven persons were killed and quite a number of others injured. The victims included a number of women and children.

A Silver Crisis in India.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 8.—The contained fall in the price of silver threatens to involve India in a serious financial crisis.

Discussions are ripe as to the means to be adopted to check the further decline and insure a recovery in value.

To Catch Coolie Poachers.

HAMILTON (Ont.) Aug. 8.—Two Canadian bicycle records were lowered here today by Zimmerman of New York, as follows: Mile record from 1:18 4 to 1:12 2; quarter mile record from .89 1-5 down to .89 seconds.

A Man with a History.

MONT VISTA (Colo.) Aug. 8.—P. J. Sheridan, who gained a world-wide reputation two years ago as being a man who was supposed to know something about the Phoenix Park murder, was crushed between a post and hay rack while driving through his gate this afternoon. It is thought he cannot live. He had been offered large sums of money to go to England to testify in the celebrated murder case.

Allerton to Trot This Season.

DURGEE (Iowa) Aug. 8.—Dr. C. H. Witbeck, the veterinary who attended Allerton at Davenport, stated today that he believes the famous horse will recover from his injury in season to trot again this year.

THE DEACON'S SCANDAL.

It Will Again Come Before the French Courts in October.

PARS, Aug. 8.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The case of Edward Parker Deacon against his wife, whom he accuses of adultery with Abbie, has been postponed until October. The public prosecutor has refused to intervene in the case, saying that Deacon had better lay the affair before the court himself. The Attorney-General alleges that there is not sufficient grounds to presume adultery. The question was not submitted at the trial of Deacon at Nice, which resulted in a verdict of guilty against Deacon for killing Abbie, whom he caught in his wife's room at the Hotel Splendide, at Cannes, and his sentence to one year's imprisonment.

Deacon, it will be recalled, declared that he would take no action against his wife under the French criminal law, contenting himself with procuring a divorce from her. He had taken his children from his wife's custody, and it was her attempt to regain possession of them by legal means that caused Deacon to change his mind and led him to institute proceedings against her for aspersions.

A WOMAN'S REVENGE.

She Kills Two Officers Who Had Aspersions on Her Honor.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] A Warsaw cable says: "A governess named Matuska, employed in the family of a high Russian official, entered a cafe, in this city yesterday, approached a table where two officers were sitting and, drawing a revolver from the folds of her gown, shot one of the men, Lieut. Golloway, through the heart. Before any one could interfere she drew a knife and plunged it into the breast of the other officer, Capt. Mullen, inflicting a mortal wound. When arrested the murderer calmly declared that she had committed the act in revenge for aspersions cast upon her by the two officers.

UPPER TEN PUGILISM.

Two Gilded Youth Fight a Couple of Savage Rounds.

SARATOGA (N. Y.) Aug. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] A prize-fight in upper ten circles took place on the fair grounds at Ballston Spa, this morning. The principals were Daniel W. Sles of Boston, a Harvard College student and member of the Harvard crew and football team, and Sidney Smith of Ballston, son of a wealthy and prominent gentleman. The fight was the result of jealousy. It was a hard one and for blood. Smith knocked Shea out in the second round. A dispute as to the time of the second round nearly precipitated a general fight. The battle was according to the London prize ring rules.

The Gridiron Club Sustains Young.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The Executive Committee of the Gridiron Club has adopted a resolution regarding the case of James P. Young, formerly executive clerk of the Senate, reciting that the Gridiron Club, having knowledge and experience of the methods by which news of executive sessions of the Senate is procured by Washington correspondents, and having absolute faith in the integrity and fidelity of Young, declares its total disbelief in the imputation against him, made in the Senate, and puts into his abhorrence of the unscrupulous and discreditable methods in which he was treated by a body from which he was entitled to expect full play and full justice.

Everybody down in Georgia is asking, "Was Cobb corned?" We think not—he apparently had a few jagged edges.

If Arizona has a few more feuds like that one out in Tonto Basin they never will get enough people together to admit it as a State.

This seems to be a great year for candidates to be at bird resorts. The President is at Loon Lake and the only Grover at Buzzard's Bay.

The New York Mail and Express says with rare wisdom that the "best society" is the kind that is never depicted in the newspapers.

If Holman could have had the World's Fair moved to some place on the Miami, he would have raked the treasury for her quicker than lightning.

ROBERT KIPLING is in Japan, but as the people of that country are the most polite on earth, the kippler will be apt to get mighty lonesome over there.

The Atchison Globe registers the sage observation that a woman never knows how gallant her husband can be until some other woman comes to visit them.

They have been having hallstones drop into the arena in Michigan six inches in circumference, but the newspapers don't say anything about their being any assistance to the corn crop.

New York threatens to put orange trees in the roof garden of its World's Fair building, which grates the Chicago Herald almost into fits. Behold how these brothers dwell in unity, so to speak!

JUDGE ALSTED is trying to hand-shake himself into the Governorship of Illinois, but the St. Louis Globe-Democrat says he can't do it. Maybe not, but that sort of a racket works mighty fine sometimes.

THERE is a howl in the Oakland Times office about Loring Pickering, the truly good editor of the San Francisco Call. If such a zephyr was to strike the country back east they would call it good corn weather.

The health officer is reported as saying that precautions are being taken against the visitation of an epidemic, but he doesn't say anything about the swill wagons that smell to heaven around town every night. That "epidemic" is already here.

The Democratic Chicago Herald easily forgives Col. Cobb for having been full on the floor of the House, but his "Where was I?" is too much for it. But there is no room for a kick; both the condition and the grammar were strikingly Democratic.

The assertion is made that in New York Grand Army men hold the balance of power. With that fact in front of us, will somebody explain how Grover Cleveland is going to carry that State? For certainly no Grand Army man will vote for the great pension vetoist and soldier insulter.

How do the Democratic calamity-howers account for the fact that in free trade England agriculture is in a more depressed condition than at any time in the past fifty years? If it is the tariff that keeps our farmers so "broke," why are not those of England rolling in wealth?

Col. Cobb persists in saying that he doesn't know whether it was beef tea or Bourbon that the page brought him when he was accused of luging a load in Congress. Well, it must be a well-acquainted guile that can't tell the difference, by the swallow, between the essence of Kentucky and beef tea.

Another monthly magazine is before the country. It is called the American Journal of Politics and is published in New York with Andrew J. Palm as editor. One would think that, after the daily, weekly and monthly papers and the semi-political magazines of the country get through with politics, there would not be enough left for another magazine to make a specialty of, but there is. This sort of thing grows with what it consumes. The new candidate for public favor starts out well. It shows a list of able contributors, is well edited and is printed in an almost faultless magazine style.

tax in establishing a system of education surpassing anything yet considered in a practical way. He would found manual training schools in connection with the system of public education and he would make the attendance at these schools of all the children of the country desirable from even a business point of view. To this end he proposes that parents or guardians shall be paid for keeping the children at school throughout the public course, including the High school, or manual training school. The proposition includes boys and girls.

Mr. Jacobson sustains his plan with so much logic that it is almost impossible to deny the beneficence of its operation. He says:

The proposition is not to take by taxation private property without compensation. Never before in the world has such compensation been given for taxation as that which would be for the amount of this tax. The compensation would be in the increased business of mankind. The rich would not become poor, and the poor would not become rich, but everybody would be more comfortable. This tax would not make life harder for one single human being, but it would make life easier for millions. The compensation would be in a peaceful and orderly society which would never be at war with itself.

This tax would not make property secure you once begin to increase the army there will be no end of it, and soldiers are far more expensive than schoolmasters. It is much cheaper to make good citizens by means of schoolmasters than it is to shoot bad citizens by means of soldiers. And we must have either more schoolmasters or more soldiers.

If we go on at the present rate, it will be only a short time before we shall be as afraid of the rising of the laboring men as the South used to be of negro insurrections. But take the children of the Anarchists condemned to be hanged and make them intelligent and efficient American citizens, and they will not wish to march under the red flag.

In a few years we should have the most intelligent population on earth. We should have a population altogether too intelligent for lawlessness.

This training of the young into intelligence and efficiency, accompanied with payment to their parents for the time spent in getting the training, would go far toward solving the labor question. There is nothing else that would go so far toward solving it.

Regardless of the labor question, this would be a good thing to do.

If there were no labor question at all, it would still be the very best thing to do. But there is a labor question, and so long as there is a labor question, and so long as we do not give it by education it will be and abide with us forever, an irrepressible conflict.

Instead of going for a mere pittance into the coal mine, the mill or the factory to be dwarfed physically, mentally and morally by long hours, over work and evil associations, the children of the poor, for like wages wherein to buy bread, would gladly crowd into the schools. Getting them into the schools and keeping them there throughout the public course would bring trained to the front all the brains and ability born in the community. It would bring capacity to the front from the Five Points as from the Hill. It would light up with bright hopes and ambitions for the children the poorest, fewest paupers, fewer hovels and more comfortable people. More than ever before it would make of this land for struggling humanity an earthly paradise.

In a money way this measure would immediately improve the condition of the laboring man more than all the strikes and all the boycotts ever have improved or ever can improve it. It would bring a thousand fold more benefit than laboring men have ever asked for or sought for or thought of.

The man who works for wages would have better wages. Taking all the young people under 20 out of the competition as wage-workers would necessarily cause wages to rise.

And if the man who works for wages would have better wages, the man who has things to sell would have better customers.

Commerce thrives, not on tramps, but on well-to-do customers.

There is not a man, woman or child in the country that would fail to find a remedy for the evils that beset us.

At this time the appearance of a little book entitled "An Ounce of Prevention," by Augustus Jacobson, is most acceptable. It is in line with the study which we have just stated is before the political economists of the country. It not only discusses the evils which are embodied in our social system with perspicuity and force, but it proposes a remedy—a revolution. It is not a novel or a heavy work like Henry George's, proposing impossible reforms, but a plain, terse discussion of principles and a proposition of feasible legislation which, if adopted, ought to accomplish a great deal of good. We can give here only a brief outline of the work with a suggestion that it is worth the reading of any body who is interested in these questions.

We would like to quote further, for the whole argument is very meaty, but space forbids.

This book, we say, is a step in the right direction. It is an attempt to grapple with the real basic problems which are vexing the Republic. The plan proposed may not be all that its projector anticipates, but it could hardly fail to accomplish a great good.

It is founded on true philanthropy and sound philosophy. It begins at the right end by helping the poor man to educate his children for the practical bread-winning affairs of life and securing the welfare of coming generations, while at the same time averting some of the dangers of inordinate wealth.

$900,000 to $1,000,000.....9 per cent.

Above a million 10 per cent, and 1 per cent additional for each additional hundred thousand, up to 50 per cent. on $5,000,000 or any sum above it.

The writer urges that this tax would not and could not fall heavily upon anybody, because when there is no estate there can be no tax.

Mr. Jacobson proposes to restrict the inordinate aggregation of wealth in the hands of a few individuals by imposing a succession tax on estates, similar to the graduated income tax which obtained in this country during the War of the Rebellion. He would graduate this succession tax on estates of deceased people as follows:

Less than $25,000.....1/4 per cent.

$25,000 to $50,000.....1/2 per cent.

$50,000 to $100,000.....1/3 per cent.

$100,000 to $200,000.....2 per cent.

$500,000 to $700,000.....6 per cent.

$700,000 to $800,000.....7 per cent.

$800,000 to $900,000.....8 per cent.

$900,000 to $1,000,000.....9 per cent.

Above a million 10 per cent, and 1 per cent additional for each additional hundred thousand, up to 50 per cent. on $5,000,000 or any sum above it.

The writer urges that this tax would not and could not fall heavily upon anybody, because when there is no estate there can be no tax.

Mr. Jacobson believes that it would be advisable to supplement this system of taxation by some of the rules of inheritance of the Code Napoleon, under which the immense subdivision of estates in France has taken place. It is the law in France that if a man leaves one child, that child is entitled to one-half of the father's estate. The father can dispose otherwise as he likes of the other half, but he can dispose of no more than one-half. If he has two children, he can dispose of one-third of his estate. If three children, of one-fourth, and so on. The children have their remedy at law to recover their portion of their father's estate. There are few wills made in France, because the law disposes so wisely of estates and leaves people so little liberty in willing away their property. There is rarely in France a contest over a will.

Mr. Jacobson proposes to utilize the vast sums collected by the succession tax in establishing a system of education surpassing anything yet considered in a practical way. He would found manual training schools in connection with the system of public education and he would make the attendance at these schools of all the children of the country desirable from even a business point of view. To this end he proposes that parents or guardians shall be paid for keeping the children at school throughout the public course, including the High school, or manual training school. He thinks the compensation should begin at the child's twelfth, and continue until his twentieth year, according to the following schedule:

First year.....	$ 50
Second year.....	75
Third year.....	100
Fourth year.....	125
Fifth year.....	150
Sixth year.....	175
Seventh year.....	225
Eighth year.....	300

The proposition includes boys and girls.

Now, public opinion is progressive, so far, at least, as outward morality and decorum go. No member of Congress could do much "reeling" from the use of intoxicants in the attempted discharge of his public duties without such a scandal as would drive him from the public service. The critical judgment in this generation is abler and more fearless and has more facilities for its efficient expression than ever before.

There seems to be a spasm of trouble among the Republicans of Santa Clara county. We want to tell you that this is a bad year to have 'em.

ADLAI STEVENSON would have felt right at home in Congress along with Cobb and the rest of the royal jags.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Waterbury American remarks that whatever he knows that Cleveland is and what he stands for.

If the Democrats could find a single man willing to make affidavit to the effect that his living expenses had been increased by the McKinley tariff law they would have the greatest drawing card of the campaign.

If there is any "Democratic politician or thief hunter" in this broad land who has not yet received a letter from Grover Cleveland on some subject and let him speak up and make known his name and address Mr. Cleveland will do the rest.

In proportion, as the evidence keeps piling up, that the protective system is a bad investment, the argument goes, the more it is used the less effective it becomes.

THE COURTS.

Nine Supreme Court Opinions Received for Filing.

Several Cases of General Interest Finally Passed On.

An Alhambra Water Case of Some Importance Decided.

A Land Deal in Which Mrs. Clara Folz was Interested — Railroad Damage Suits Ruled Upon — More New Citizens Turned Out.

Nine opinions were received by Deputy Clerk Ashmore, of the Supreme Court, yesterday from headquarters for filing in this city, the cases decided being as follows:

Alhambra Addition Water Company (appellant) vs. Solomon Richardson et al. (respondents). Order appealed from reversed. This action was brought to prevent defendants from maintaining a certain water gate, in a pipe conveying water for irrigation and other purposes, belonging to plaintiff, and to prevent defendants from taking from that pipe a greater quantity of water than what plaintiff claimed defendants had a legal right to use. The lower court refused to grant the relief, by injunction, asked for by plaintiff, and rendered judgment in favor of defendants, whereupon plaintiff moved for a new trial, which was refused, and the appeal is from the order denying this motion. The water right of the defendants, as against plaintiff, was determined and defined, by a decision of the Supreme Court in a case where these parties were litigants (72 Cal. 584) and it is claimed the appellants that the Court took an erroneous view of the scope of the judgment rendered therein, and by its decision in this case allowed defendants certain rights in taking water from plaintiff's pipe, which were entirely inadmissible, under the view of the matter taken by the appellate court in affirming the judgment on the former appeal.

Charles H. Dunton (respondent) vs. William Niles (appellant). Cause remanded, with instructions to the court to modify the judgment by allowing to plaintiff the sum of $500 instead of $920, with interest thereon, from December 12, 1887, and costs of suit, if plaintiff shall, within twenty days after the filing of the remittitur, stipulate that such reduction is made, but if he does not so stipulate, the court is directed to set aside the judgment and order a new trial. This is an action wherein plaintiff, as assignee of W. W. Montague & Co., sues to recover damages for the breach of an alleged contract, whereby defendant agreed to settle and pay to them certain damages to the woodworks and merchandise, caused by an excavation made by defendant adjoining and under their warehouse at No. 110 Upper Main street, in this city, and also for certain tin sold and delivered to defendant.

Blondeau (appellant) vs. Snyder et al. (respondents). Order appealed from as to defendant, Rosa A. Woodford, reversed, but as to defendant, Snyder, affirmed. This was an action to foreclose a mortgage, and the appeal was taken from an order of the Superior Court of San Diego county, striking out certain provisions of the judgment therein.

Blane (respondent) vs. the Paymaster Music Company (appellant). Judgment and order of the Superior Court of San Diego county reversed, with directions to the lower court to find the amount due to plaintiff from the Esperanza Company upon the notes referred to in the complaint, and thereupon to render judgment in accordance with the opinion filed. This is an action to recover $6000, the amount of two notes given by the Esperanza Company of Arizona to plaintiff, said company having assigned all its property, worth $75,000, to one Blane, as trustee, manager and agent, who at a pretended sale at auction bought it all in for $50, and proceeded to organize the Paymaster Mining Company, to which he turned it all over, thereby defrauding plaintiff and the other creditors of the Esperanza company. Plaintiff obtained judgment and defendant appealed.

Thomas Barrows et al. (appellants) vs. Lewis C. Fox et al. (respondents). Judgment and order of the Superior Court of Ventura county, affirmed. This was an action to recover damages for and costs of defendants for interfering with plaintiff's water ditch.

Florence Morgan (respondent) vs. Southern Pacific Company (appellant). Judgment and order appealed from reversed and a new trial ordered. The facts to this action are the same as in the preceding case, but when plaintiff fell from the steps of the car she had a two-year-old baby in her arms, who died nine days afterward from pneumonia, and plaintiff brought this action to recover damages for the death of said child, upon the theory that pneumonia was caused by said fall. The jury rendered a verdict for $20,000 damages and judgment was rendered in accordance therewith.

Jefferson et al. (appellants) vs. Hewitt et al. (respondents). Judgment and order of the Superior Court of Orange county reversed, and cause remanded for a new trial. This is an action to recover $5000 alleged to be due on a note assigned to plaintiffs by the Santa Ana, Fair View and Pacific Railroad Company, to which it was given for fifty shares of its capital stock, upon certain conditions, which defendants claim were not carried out.

Combination Land Company (appellant) vs. A. C. Morgan (respondent). Judgment and order of the Superior Court of San Diego county reversed, and cause remanded. This is an action to foreclose a vendor's lien or contract of land known as the Sorrento, which Morgan and the defendant, Clara Folz, agreed to purchase from plaintiff for $2851.50, of which each was to contribute one-half. It was agreed between defendants that Mrs. Folz should make the purchase, take conveyance in her own name, and hold a half interest in trust for Morgan. Pursuant thereto he gave Mrs. Folz his half and she procured the conveyance. But instead of paying the entire purchase price in cash, she paid off a portion of $574.84, for which she gave her note. Subsequently she and Morgan agreed to exchange lands, that is Morgan agreed to sell her a house and lot valued at $5300, for which she was to pay by assuming a mortgage for $2400 thereon, by conveying the Sorrento, and making up the balance in money. She paid $1000 in cash, conveyed the Sorrento, and gave him her note for $650, as security for the payment of which he retained the title to the house and lot in possession of which he placed her.

Mrs. Folz failed to pay the note to plaintiff at its maturity, and this suit was brought. She suffered judgment by default, but Morgan successfully defended upon the ground that he was a bona fide purchaser for value. The Supreme Court holds, however, that as he was fully informed, while he still held the title to his house and lot as security for her note, that Mrs. Folz still owed $574.84 on her note upon the purchase price of the Sorrento, it was necessary for him to show that he had paid for the land before he received notice of the vendor's lien, and this he failed to do.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.

Upon producing the necessary proofs of residence here and taking the requisite oaths of renunciation and allegiance, the following thirty foreigners were duly admitted to citizenship of the United States by Judge Smith yesterday. Fred G. Passord, David Henderson, Charles Holdorf, Otto Lenzquist, Albert Kwasnigrock, August Uhde, Joseph Enz, Albert Enz, W. Launseren, J. H. Holterman, Fred F. Koch, Henry Matsos and Chris Wohlauer, Germans; Erick Erickson, Carl A. Wolff and D. E. Carlson, Swedes; R. P. Hemmingen, a Dane; August Wagner and Louis F. Serran, Swiss; T. B. Ramirez, a Mexican; and Alberto R. Barrios, a Chilean.

JUDGED INSANE.

William Schrake, a German tailor, 58 years of age, was taken before Judge Smith yesterday for examination as to his mental condition and upon the recommendation of Drs. Cannon and Reed, the commissioners appointed for the purpose, was duly adjudged insane and committed to the State Asylum at Napa.

The unfortunate man, who has ten children, of whom the youngest is 22 years of age, is suffering from primary dementia, brought on by worrying over domestic troubles and believes that some one is trying to kill him.

DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.

Proceedings to obtain divorces on various grounds have been instituted by Mrs. Mary M. H. Gamble, against Samuel Gamble, and Mrs. J. A. Thomas against Mrs. Martha V. Thomas.

NEW SUITS.

Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

Savings Fund and Building Society vs. Mary E. King et al., suit to quiet title to lot 19, block 8, of Cornwall and Green's subdivision of the City View tract.

R. J. Northam vs. James F. Smith et al., suit to recover $520.86, the amount of the delinquent assessment paid to City Treasurer Johnson on lot 6 of block 14 of Ord's survey, to enjoin Johnson from paying same to defendant and to quiet defendant's title to said land.

Bartolo Ballerino vs. L. M. Bigelow, suit to recover $2000 damages for an alleged trespass on plaintiff's "Nigger Alley" property.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

Officer Goodman's Catch Proves to be a Sure-enough Burglar, Broke Into the London Clothing Store and Supplied Himself with Silk Underwear — Chinese Binders Gassing Trouble.

Nathan Davis, the negro who burglarized the London clothing store Sunday night and got away with a big valise full of silk under clothes, was before Justice Austin yesterday, and his examination was set for the 11 inst., at 10 o'clock a.m.

Detective Goodman did a good piece of work in capturing the fellow, for he did not know when he arrested Davis that the store had been robbed. He found Davis wandering down Upper Main street with the valise in his hand, and from his actions the officer thought that something was wrong.

After locking Davis up Detective Bosquill and Goodman started out on a tour of inspection and soon learned that the London clothing store had been robbed, and the stuff in Davis' possession was all that was missing. They then returned and booked him for burglary, and are confident that they have a strong case against him.

Last night Detective Goodman arrested George Wilson and Ed Johnson, a couple of young negroes who are supposed to be pals of Davis in the London clothing-house burglary. Davis made a confession early in the evening to Detective Bosquill and stated that Wilson and Johnson assisted in the robbery.

Highbinders on the Warpath.

Chinese highbinders are again on the warpath, and, if the Chinatown police squad do not keep a close watch on the rascals, there will be a wholesale killing among the pig tails.

One of the highbinders started the circus Sunday night, by firing a couple of shots at one of the opposition faction, but he was disarmed before his enemies could get hold of their guns, and the big fight that had been talked of for several months past was postponed for the time being.

Chinatown is full of bad men at the present time and the officers say they are well armed and the feeling is so bitter between the different factions that they will not behave themselves until they have had a fight.

Petty Offenders.

There were but two drunks in the police court yesterday, which tends to show that Sunday drinking is not so common as it used to be. Before the Sunday closing law went into effect it was not uncommon to find from fifteen to twenty-five drunks in the police court dock Monday morning.

George Knight, the fellow who was chasing around the streets Sunday night with a big fat body, a bare face and a gaudy six-shooter under his coat-tail, was before Justice Austin yesterday. The officers could not prove that he was a train-rober or would-be murderer, so the Court fined him $15 and allowed him to go.

Mrs. T. Suarez, the woman who got on the warpath the other night, was convicted of disturbing the peace by Justice Austin yesterday and fined $8.

She got into a row with her neighbors over her son, who is quite a wild青年.

Clinton Stevenson, the boy who was arrested the other day for battering a Chinese, was tried and acquitted in the Police Court yesterday. The evidence went to show that the Chinaman started the fight and was roundly thrashed by young America.

Patrick Hartnett, who was arrested the other day on a charge of having battered an old man, was convicted in the Police Court yesterday. He will be sentenced today.

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8, 1892.
The sixth annual report of the Bank Commissioners for the year ending June 30, 1892, has been completed and sent to the State Printer for publication. The report contains the statements of 268 banks, the increase for the year being 22, shown in detail in comparison with the preceding year as follows:

July 1.	1891.	1892.
State Commercial.....	$100,150.	150.
Foreign Commercial.....	5	5.
State Savings.....	45,540.	54.
Private.....	20	17.
Under Commissioners.....	269	232.
National.....	37	36.
Grand total.....	246	268.

The combined resources and liabilities of the 268 banks are shown as follows:

RESOURCES.
Bank premises.....	$6,847.
Real estate taken for debt.....	4,330,031.
Investments in stocks and bonds.....	2,000,000.
Loans on real estate.....	11,755,119.
Loans on stocks and bonds.....	26,695,751.
Loans on other securities.....	6,369,480.
Loans on personal security.....	70,001,680.
Money on hand.....	21,250,782.
Due from banks.....	16,800,000.
Other assets.....	6,018,594.
Total.....	$301,046,044.

LIABILITIES.
Capital paid up.....	$63,565,001.
Reserve and surplus.....	26,048,730.
Due to depositors.....	198,636,411.
Due to other banks.....	10,144,003.
Other liabilities.....	3,531,897.
Total.....	$301,046,044.

TOTAL..... $301,046,044.

On July 1, 1891, the grand total of resources was $283,846,263, thus showing $18,099,781 as the increase for the last fiscal year.

The aggregate resources subdivided among banks and compares with the preceding year as follows:

1891.	1892.
Commercial..... $118,149,109.	$123,200,203.
Savings..... 126,218,092	132,522,573.
National..... 34,184,803	31,822,585.
Private..... 5,114,319	3,371,178.

TOTAL..... $283,846,263. $301,046,044.

Our national bank failed during the year, and we were under the State system and one new was organized at Pomona, Los Angeles county.

The two State commercial banks retired during the year, the Granite Bank of Monterey and the Bank of San Jose. The proprietors of the latter institution changed their place of residence to Monterey and organized the Bank of Monterey. There was a net gain of seventeen commercial banks, of which four were incorporated from private banks, but was but one new State bank during the year.

The statistics show an increase in the deposits in savings banks and a decrease in the commercial banks for the year as compared with the preceding twelve months. Deposits in the classified banks for the two years compare as follows:

1891.	1892.
Commercial..... $51,611,788.	$53,247,623.
Savings..... 114,164,623	127,312,088.
National..... 18,084,738	16,659,178.
Private..... 2,610,738	1,437,882.

TOTAL..... $186,471,037. $198,656,411.

The net increase in deposits is shown as follows:

INCREASE IN DEPOSITS.
Savings Banks.....	$13,147,565.
Commercial Banks.....	982,191.

The City Council in Regular Session.

The Terminal Wants More Tracks Across Colorado Street.

Work Progressing Rapidly on the Sewer System.

Co. B's Minstrel Camp—Friends of the Poor—People Coming and Going.

A Smooth Gentleman Captured.

A regular meeting of the City Council was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. President West presided and all the trustees were present except Mr. Lukens, who is at San Diego.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A petition was presented by C. H. Rhodes, asking permission to close up a portion of Hawkeye street. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys, with the City Attorney.

The Committee on Auditing and Finance reported favorably on bills to the amount of $2890.60, which were approved.

The following report was submitted by Engineer Mayer, with reference to the work on the outfit sewer system: "The work began at the Southern Pacific main road, south of Alhambra, and at a northwardly on Garfield avenue a distance of 3041 feet, near the Los Angeles Terminal Railroad tracks, with an average depth of over seven feet. There exists now one gap of 75 feet in the outlet of 75 feet, to make the sewer continuous. The outlet goes to the Southern Pacific Railroad at Alhambra. As soon as the pipe for these gaps arrives they will be connected, which will be perhaps inside of ten days. We are now working on the main road, and the Southern Pacific Railroad. I estimate that about one-third of the entire work is completed. Work progresses rapidly. We have from forty to fifty men employed."

A. A. McFarland wired from William Stanton, calling the board's attention to the fact that the southern part of Fair Oaks avenue is seldom, if ever, visited by the sparkling carts and is consequently wearing into chalk.

The report of Chief Turbett of the fire department for the month of July was submitted. The department responded to three alarms and had one practice drill during the month.

As a representative of Los Angeles, representing the Terminal Railway Company, addressed the board briefly on the matter of granting the company permission to lay two additional tracks across Colorado street, east of the present Alameda track to afford facilities for the interchange of their cars. Gibbons then introduced an ordinance to this effect, granting the company such right for a period of thirty-five years.

On the same subject George F. Kernahan submitted the following communication: "At the meeting held at the request of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway Company, a number of citizens met at the house of J. W. Scoville yesterday afternoon to hear what was proposed, and to urge the Board to accept the resolution of the railway company, and that the citizens here assembled, therefore,

"WHEREAS, the matter of a double track across Colorado street for the purpose of switching, the cars and engines of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway Company has been brought to the attention of the officials of the railway company and the citizens here assembled, therefore,

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that we are decidedly opposed to more than two tracks across Colorado street across Colorado street by the Los Angeles Terminal Company and that the switching of engines and trains across Colorado street be prohibited. A copy of which resolution was read and voted for by the Council." No action was taken on the matter.

The meeting then adjourned, after which the Trustees reconvened in their official capacity as a BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

City Clerk Dyer and Deputy Steen were on hand with the books, which show that on the first day of the month there was $10,500 more than last year. John S. Conroy, chosen president of the board. It was decided to meet each afternoon between the hours of 3 and 8 at the City Hall until a reasonable time has been granted, probably to enter complaints as to the listing of the property.

CAPTURED AT SAN DIEGO.

Constable Slater yesterday returned from San Diego in company with George Willian Thompson, a very smooth gentleman whose residence is unknown. Some weeks ago, however, Mr. Thompson visited Pasadena, and just before his departure he called upon Miss Idonia McLain, proprietor of the Hotel Plaza, from whom he obtained $15 on a bill she had drawn on the money in appy to the credit of some boarders, whom he was about to send her way. After George had skipped the check was found to be a bogus one. Through the watchfulness of the local officials he was located a few days ago in San Diego, where he has just served a term of fifty days for a like offense. He will be tried today or tomorrow before Justice Rose.

SILENCE GOLDEN.

The Star reporter is an adept at crawling out of a small hole in which he has unwittingly become imprisoned in a discussion of some public matter—the schools, for instance, or a $10,000 special tax, which is to serve as a "covering" for an alleged shortage of some $7000. He crawls out by simply saying nothing, not even taking time enough to explain that instead of $7000 he has only $6000, and reducing his balance of over $6000, which will probably be applied to the purchase of a fringe with frills on it for the "covering."

WHICH SOME MONEY IS NEEDED.

A meeting of the Charity Organization Society was held yesterday afternoon. There were present J. A. Buchanan, Rev. Mrs. H. C. Lester, and L. J. Mattox, and Mrs. Glendora Kyle. Some bills were audited.

The treasury was found to be in a depleted condition, and contributions from the more inclined would prove very acceptable. The sum of $1000 will be a large amount of work in the way of ministering to the wants of the poor and afflicted, and as voluntary contributions are dependent almost entirely for the support of the organization, it is little wonder that the funds sometimes fall short.

WILL PASADENA BE IN IT?

Frank Polley has received copies of the programme of the first annual meet to be given by the Riverside wheelmen on September 9, admission day. The events include an 18½ mile road race over Magnolia Park in the afternoon, a grand banquet and presentation of prizes at the Arlington in the evening. Any of the local wheelmen interested in the matter can obtain programmes of Mr. Polley. Pasadena ought to capture some of the many prizes.

GETTING READY FOR VENTURA.

Co. B has established a miniature camp at Arch Beach. Yesterday the big mess tent, four ordinary sleeping tents and a 5th tent with a "b" in front of it were erected on the southeast corner of the grounds. About twenty members of the company, composed for the most part of recent recruits, with several more as yet to be had for early morning drill during the balance of the week, all of which is in preparation for the coming encampment at Ventura. Capt. Bangham will be in command of the camp.

PASADENA BREVIETTE.

The peach crop is an unusually heavy one.

L. H. Michener returned to Catalina yesterday.

E. C. Webster is fully recovered from his recent illness.

The Royal Arch Masons held a regular meeting yesterday evening.

Handsome signs were yesterday posted conspicuously on the walls of the Arcadia Hotel, in its rejuvenated condition will hereafter be known as the Balmoral.

Major O. F. Weed and wife will go down to Long Beach tomorrow to spend the balance of the summer in a neat little cottage, which the Major has just completed at this popular resort.

Frederick H. Post was on the streets Saturday afternoon for the first time after a long illness. He was given a warm greeting by his many friends, who were glad to learn that his health is steadily improving.

POMONA.

Another Meeting of the City Council—Contest over the Clerkship.

The City Council held another meeting yesterday morning with the usual results so far as selecting a clerk is concerned, but the election was called off at 9:30, and was nearly an hour later for the reason that the two salaried members came in. After reading the minutes of the preceding meeting the president announced that they would proceed to ballot. They did so. Same old result—Carter 2, from the anti-salooners, and Gartheide 2, from the other side. The anti-salooners said they would vote for any man whose name had been presented except Gartheide. The other side said they had 100 votes apiece, but all the lower part of the body is completely paralyzed. Mr. Baxter is a young man of about 28 years of age, well known and highly respected in San Bernardino.

NURSES' MEETING.

A meeting of nurseries is called for next Saturday to take action on the question of Southern California at Los Angeles last Saturday, when a resolution was considered in which all the six southern counties of Southern California are declared to be scale infested, requiring the services of the State entomologist, Dr. C. E. M. Munn, to inspect the nurseries free from sale, and that such a resolution would injure their business.

A couple of colts killed.

Yesterday morning a Santa Fe train ran into and killed two cattle near the corner of 1 and Seventh streets. They were the property of a Santa Fe woman, who was driving a team of horses on the railroad and the cattle had crossed the track. When the train appeared the colts endeavored to get back to their dams and ran in front of the engine, resulting in instant death.

NEWS AND BUSINESS

The Weather

U. S. WEATHER OFFICE, LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8, 1892.—At 5 a.m. the barometer registered 29.90; at 3 p.m. 29.93. Thermometer for corresponding hours showed 63° and 69°. Maximum temperature, 78°; minimum, 61°. Rainfall for the past twenty-four hours .01. Character of weather, partly cloudy.

The balloon ascension at Redondo Beach last Sunday seems by all accounts to have been, to spectators, at least, the most satisfactory and pleasing affair of the kind ever witnessed in this vicinity. The balloon was a gorged sun, white and golden, 60 feet in diameter, and a model of symmetry and good taste. The bright, gay colors set it off wonderfully, and this and the ease with which it was inflated and managed demonstrated that W. Swindfeld, the maker, is expert in construction of this kind. Mr. Swindfeld is the tent awning and flag manufacturer of 115 East Second street, this city. He is a thorough master of his business, and if there is anything in business that can be called art, that is what he doesn't know how to make, it would be worth seeing as a curiosity. Just now he is working a large force of hands on fumigating tents for the orchardists, and expects within the next few weeks to have hundreds of them for use in this and adjoining counties. His work and material are always so reliable, his prices so reasonable, and his reputation for promptness so good that there is no doubt about his getting plenty of orders.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

A Visit from Mayor Sanderson of San Francisco.

He Says Some Very Pleasant Things About Los Angeles.

The Regular Reports of Committees and Officers Presented.

Protests Against the Work of the Street Commissioners—Complaints About the Figueroa Street Pavement-Motions.

The City Council met in regular session yesterday morning at the usual place and time, every ward being represented, and transacted a large amount of routine business.

After the usual preliminaries had been disposed of, Mayor Sanderson of San Francisco was formally introduced by President Bonsall to his colleagues and made a brief address; to the effect that since his last visit to Los Angeles ten years ago he had heard a good deal about the improvements which had been made, but was not prepared to find that such very bridges had been made as those he found on his arrival. He complimented the Council very highly for the part it had taken in building up the city to its present high standard as the second on the coast, and stated that although he had traveled all over this country and Europe, he had seen no city of its size to equal it. There were more beautiful homes here than he had ever seen in any one place before, and it was an ideal place for a resting place. He was not at all surprised that so many rich Eastern men had come to live here, so far as he could see, was that it was so nice a place that its residents might forget to make any provision for their future home and want to remain here forever.

At the close of his remarks Mayor Sanderson was accommodated with a seat at the president's desk, but after watching the proceedings for a few minutes withdrew.

ROUTINE REPORTS.

The report of Police Judge Austin, showing the collection of $24 in fees and fines during the month of July last, was read and referred to the City Auditor.

The Finance Committee's report was adopted as read, and the accompanying batch of demands approved in accordance with its recommendation.

The following bids were opened, read and referred to the Board of Public Works:

For the paving, etc., of Second street from Los Angeles to Alameda street—J. F. Smith, grading, 1 1/2 cents per square foot; curb, $1.05; paving, 29 1/2 cents; sewer, $1.15; sidewalk, 15 1/2 cents; manholes, $80; flush tanks, $75; lamppoles, $12.

For improving Santeet street from Ninth to Twelfth street—J. T. Davis, grading, $2.20; sidewalk, 16 cents; curb, 40 cents; sewer, $1.07; manholes and flush tanks, $80.

For improving Santeet street from Twelfth to Twenty-first street—J. T. Davis, grading, $2.20; sidewalk, 18 cents; curb, 40 cents; sewer, $1.28; manholes and flush tanks, $95.

Upon motion of Councilman Rhodes further proceedings with regard to Olive street were ordered abandoned.

Upon motion of the same member the ordinance of intention to improve Twenty-second street was adopted as read.

A deed from Joseph Hyans was presented and referred to the City Engineer and City Attorney for investigation and report.

Upon motion of Councilman Innes the clerk was directed to advertise for bids for furnishing of barley, bran and beans for the use of the street and fire departments.

Councilman Summerland moved that the clerk be also directed to advertise for proposals for the rental of reservoir site No. 7, for the term of one year.

The matter was then postponed for two weeks, but C. C. Gilbert created a diversion by stating that he solicited signatures for the Pittimino company and that Mr. Drain stated that he could tell the property-owners that the work would not cost more than 27 cents per foot.

MOTIONS.

The Finance Committee reported recommending that the work be done by the proper officers showing that the work has been properly done, and demanded that the charges be heard.

Mr. H. W. Hellman briefly addressed the Council, pointing out the difference in prices between Los Angeles and San Francisco, prices, saying "that better work is being done in the former city for 21 cents per foot than the job here that costs 28 1/2 cents."

MOTIONS.

The Finance Committee reported recommending the allowance of certain demands, which report was adopted.

Councilman Nickell moved that the Street Superintendent repair the Dowsay and First street bridges between its tracks, and to notify the Consolidated Electric Railway Company to put Pasadena avenue, Truman and Hawkins streets in as good condition as before its tracks were laid there.

Adopted.

The report of the Land Committee, recommending that quit claim deeds be issued to Alice L. Bragg for part of lot 1 of the Cadreker tract, and W. F. Nordholt et al. for a piece of land at the northeast corner of First and Main streets, for the purpose of confirming a small strip of land of front of his property for the widening of First street, having been opened and widened at all other points and the property moved back to conform to the new lines of the street.

Sanders briefly addressed the Council, asking that the assessment on his property be divided, as he does not own all the property which has been assessed in his name.

The map of the proposed street was brought into the chamber, and Commissioner McMillen explained the situation from his standpoint, arguing that the assessment had been properly made.

After explanations, the matter was referred back to the Street Commissioners for correction.

THE SIXTH STREET EXTENSION.

The commissioners for the opening and extension of Sixth street from the west line of Pearl street to the Galpin street bridge for the widening of First street.

The purpose of conferring a small strip of land of front of his property for the widening of First street, having been opened and widened at all other points and the property moved back to conform to the new lines of the street.

In the matter of the opening of Hoover or Boundary street at certain points between Alvarado and Jefferson streets, I think it advisable to inform you before beginning the work, that the district of assessment will have to be divided, as he does not own all the property which has been assessed in his name.
